SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON CHALLENGED BALLOTS

As determined in the Report and Recommendations on Challenged Ballots which issued on March 14, 2008, the challenge to Edgar Rivera's ballot is sustained. The Report also recommends that the challenges to the 3 other challenged ballots be overruled. This results in there being 49 valid votes of which the majority (25) were cast for the Petitioner. Therefore, please take notice that the Conclusion and Recommendations in the Report and Recommendations on Challenged Ballots previously issued in this matter, is hereby corrected in the following respect:

CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

Having recommended that the challenge to the ballot of Edgar Rivera be sustained, and as the ballots of Jonathan Albaladejo, Carlos Franco and Ariel Berrios no longer affect the results of the election, it is recommended that Union de Trabajadores Industriales de Puerto Rico, Inc. be certified as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the Employer's employees in the unit.¹

At San Juan, Puerto Rico this 20th day of March, 2008.

¹Under the provisions of Section 102.69 of the Board's Rules and Regulations, exceptions to this report may be filed with the Board in Washington, D.C. 20570. Exceptions must be received by the Board in Washington by April 3, 2008.

Under the provisions of Section 102.69(g) of the Board's rules, documentary evidence, including affidavits, which a party has timely submitted to the Regional Director in support of its challenges and which are not included in the Report, are not part of the record before the Board unless appended to the exceptions or opposition thereto which the party files with the Board. Failure to append to the submission to the Board copies of evidence timely submitted to the Regional Director and not included in the report shall preclude a party from relying upon that evidence in any subsequent related unfair labor practice proceeding.

In the Regional Office's initial correspondence, the parties were advised that the National Labor Relations Board has expanded the list of permissible documents that may be electronically filed with the Board in Washington, DC. If a party wishes to file one of these documents electronically, please refer to the Attachment supplied with the Regional Office's initial correspondence for guidance in doing so. The guidance can also be found under "E-Gov" on the National Labor Relations Board web site: www.nlrb.gov
